Hands-on Practical Applications of Blockchain

Course outline

- In-depth introduction to blockchain platforms and practice to build your own Bitcoin

Course objectives

At the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Understand how blockchain works from a technical perspective
- Gain insights into various blockchain platforms
- Learn how to set up a Ethereum and to build a smart contract using blockchain

Course details	Who should attend	Pre-requisites	Model of training
1 week	Business, Technology and Operations professionals responsible for process or product implementation, support or requirements functions.	Participants should have basic programming ability in languages such as Javascript.	Classroom, Field trip
Certificated by Singapore Management University (SMU)		Tools Stellar	